

Early Intervention Association of Nova Scotia (EINS)

TRICIA MORSE FAMILY EDUCATION FUND

In memory of Tricia Morse, a dedicated Early Interventionist in Nova Scotia for over 30 years.

Early Intervention Association of Nova Scotia (EINS) is pleased to support family members (2 per family / per workshop) with the cost of registration for educational workshops as funds permit.

EINS would like to gratefully acknowledge The Truckers Association of Nova Scotia & the Department of Education and Early Childhood Development for their generous donations which allow us to help families learn more about their child's needs.

PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY

Name of First Applicant	Relationship to the Child
Name of Second Applicant	Relationship to the Child
Mailing Address
Town	Postal Code
Email Address
Name of Intended Workshop	Date(s)
Location:	Registration Cost:
Name of Developmental Interventionist

Amount	Explanation	Developmental Interventionist's Initials
Actual cost up to $100	In province, registration fee less than $100
Actual cost up to $150	In province, registration fee equal to or greater than $100
Actual cost up to $200	Out of province, registration fee greater than $100

Please note: We are grateful to the IWK and Telehealth, as well as to Nova Scotia Hearing and Speech Centres for offering valuable workshops for families to support their children's development. As these workshops are free, EINS will cover mileage at a rate of ($0.25/km) and parking. Obtain expense form from your Developmental Interventionist.

EINS is extremely honoured to fund families. Should you not attend the conference, please be considerate of others who may need funding by returning the funds. Thank you in advance.

Parent Signature

Date

Developmental Interventionist

Date

For more information please contact: Angie Parker-Brown (earlyintervention.ns@gmail.com) or (902) 890-1393
Form can be scanned and emailed to Angie Parker-Brown or mailed to EINS, PO Box 129, Truro, NS B2N 3H7